BIRTHDAYS IN OUR DIRECTORY

Some of our members recently proposed that we have a section in our annual Directory which shows members' birth days. It's a very nice idea. Please note that we only wish to include "days", not "dates"!

For example, we would like to include "MEMBER X – 17th January; MEMBER Y – 24th January, etc," but with no years attached! This is so that those ladies who wish to remain discreet about their age can continue to be so!

Therefore, if you DO NOT WISH to have your birth day included in our next year's Directory (2023) please can you contact our Treasurer, Jan, who is going to organise this for us: jwcltreasurer@gmail.com

MAH JONG

Do you like to play board games? Why not try MAHJONG?

About 16 years ago we had an Australian lady in the Club who was passionate about this game. She brought all the equipment over here from Perth, Western Australia and started up a Mahjong group.

Unfortunately she had to return home to Australia but a few of us still meet once a week - on Thursday afternoons from 14.30 – 17.00 (at Hotel Pestalozzi) to play this fascinating game - which is fun, challenging and interesting!

It is a game of Chinese origin, using small engraved tiles, for tables of three to four players. We play the "Western style" (Chinese style is different).

You are very welcome to participate - please contact us for further information!

All COVID restrictions of course apply.

LOCARNO CULTURAL VISIT

Wednesday, 15 June, Casa Rusca
Afghani Artist Malina Suliman

“BEYOND THE VEIL A DECONTEXTUALISATION”

Malina Suliman was born in 1990 in Kandahar. She is one of a small number of female artists who have emerged from war-ravaged Afghanistan. After studying Fine Art in Pakistan, Suliman was inspired by the potential of street art. One of her most iconic motifs is the skeletal form dressed in a blue burqa which highlights the issues of identity, inequality, and oppression in Afghanistan.

“Beyond The Veil – A Decontextualisation” brings together sound and video; substituting the graffiti wall for a burqa, Suliman’s decontextualisation of this highly charged item of clothing reminds us of how context can shift meaning. From the banal to the poignant, the space is filled with the hopes and wishes of Afghans alongside a collection of international voices captured by the artist.

❄️ ONLINE EXHIBITION: "MIGRATIONS" ❄️

by our own member Agnes Wludyka

This is a fascinating opportunity to look at artworks, videos and other exhibits which challenge our perception of migrants. It's a wonderful exhibition. Here's the information you need to enter:

The Virtual Museum of the Anthropocene (Wirtualne Muzeum Antropocenu, wma.museum) invites you to its latest exhibition "Migracje/Migrations".

The exposition shows various aspects of human and animal migration: from forced migration caused by conflicts (as in Ukraine, Afghanistan, Syria) or climate change (Sudan, Madagascar), to migration following animals (Mongolia); as well as economic migration (to America, Great Britain, Germany, Australia); up to a career change, study abroad, simply the desire to live in another country or migration following love or within oneself to find a shelter.

In addition to photographs, paintings, video and sound installations by various artists, the exhibition also includes video and audio recordings with stories told by people living in foreign countries. Human journeys are intertwined with animal migrations, some of which are forced by climate change or human domination.

The aim of the exhibition is to challenge certain stereotypes and to give a voice and a face to every migration, every story, every person.

The exhibition will be available online (on the Kunstmatrix platform) until 20 July 2022. Concurrently, there will be online meetings with migration specialists, artists (some of whom are also migrants), anthropologists, writers, museums, and institutions related to and helping migrants.

The link: <https://wma.museum/migracje-migrations/>

You can enter as many times as you like and it's free. Please read the instructions before proceeding to the exhibition (at the bottom of the page below the poster) for a smoother experience. If you have a minute we would appreciate it if you could fill in our survey on the website.
